

Contents

1. War and Veterans: An Introduction	1
Frank Jacob and Stefan Karner
2. The Self-Organization of Ukrainian Soldiers Interned in Poland and Czechoslovakia in the Aftermath of the Great War	21
Anastasiia Ivanova
3. Once a Soldier-Citizen, Always a Citizen-Soldier: French War Veterans and Notions of Rights and Duties	53
Sally Carlton
4. Finding “the Man Behind the Handicap”: Gender, Rehabilitation, and the War Blind of the First World War	75
Evan P. Sullivan
5. The Failed Reintegration of “War Cripples” after the Great War: The German Example	99
Sonja Petersen and Thomas Schuetz
6. Disseminating the “Truth” about Imprisonment: Veterans’ Associations of Former POWs in Interwar Austria	117
Verena Moritz
7. From Peasant to Bolivian Patriot: The Political Awakening of Chaco War Veterans	151
Robert Niebuhr
8. Collecting the Shreds: Former Austrian POWs in the Soviet Union as a Source of Information for British Secret Services in Early Cold War Austria	185
Dieter Bacher
9. The Repatriation of Japanese POWs and the Early Cold War in East Asia	203
Frank Jacob
10. “As Long as We Live, You Shall be Remembered”: Canadian Veterans of the Vietnam War and Their Struggle for Recognition	227
Sean J. McLaughlin
11. Belated Recognition: Austria’s 2000/01 Compensation Laws for Austrian Prisoners of War und Internees of World War II	261
Stefan Karner and Harald Knoll
12. “Ahead to the Vanguard of Military Medicine”: The Development of the Department of Defense’s Centers of Excellence for Psychological Health and Traumatic Brain Injury	273
Michael Doidge
13. Contributors	311
14. Index	315