

NtK XII and IIHA 2023

Travel and contact information

This year's joint „Need to Know“ XII and IIHA 2023 is taking place in the city of Graz in Styria, in Southeastern Austria. The location of the conference is the castle of St. Martin in the southwestern part of the city:

Getting to Graz:

- By plane: There are two options:
  - Arrive at International Airport Graz-Thalerhof (GRZ) south of the city, there is a small train station close to the airport with connections to Graz Main Station every half an hour. From here, you can take a taxi or follow the infos on public transport below.
  - Arrive at Vienna International Airport (VIE) at Vienna and take the train to Graz Main Station (there are connections to Graz Main station every hour, both direct connections and connections with changing trains at Vienna Main Station). From here, take a taxi or please follow the infos on public transport below.
- By train: By train you'll arrive at Vienna Main Station. From here, please take a taxi or follow the infos on public transport below.
- By car: Graz is at the crossroad of two Austrian highways, the A9 ((North-South-connection) and the A2 (East-West connection). For further direction to the castle, please see the infos for arrival by car below.

Getting to the castle of St. Martin:

- By public transport:

- The castle itself has unfortunately no direct connection to public transport, but there are some bus stops in close by. The best options:
- From Graz Main Station: Take the train “S-Bahn S3” to “Graz Don Bosco”, and from there go with the bus No. 31 in direction “Webling” to the station “Ankerstraße”, from there it’s about 16 minutes walk to the castle.
- From the city center: From the square “Jakominiplatz”, take the bus No. 31 in direction “Webling” to the station “Ankerstraße”, from there it’s about 16 minutes walk to the castle.

- By car:

- Via A9 from the North: Pass through the Plabutschunnel (the tunnel that passes the city in the West), and short after exiting the tunnel, keep left to “Graz-Webling” and up to the roundabout, take the third exit on the right to “Graz Mitte – Strassgang), at the exit keep left to “Strassgang-Webling”, at the next junction (with traffic lights) keep left, cross the bridge over the highway with the tunnel exit on the right and the railway line to the next junction with traffic lights, here you keep right to the “Weblinger Straße”. At the next junction (with a car dealer on the right) you turn right into the “L333”. Go for about 150m, then turn left into a small street called “Salfeldstraße”. Go until the end of the street – you can already see the castle a little bit to the right. Now turn right, and then left, and the continuing Salfeldstraße will take you right to the castle hill.
- Via A9 from the South: Go until short before the Plabutschunnel (the tunnel that passes the city in the West), then keep left to take the exit “Graz” which takes you to the roundabout, keep on the left lane to Graz-Center. Take the second exit on the right to “Graz Mitte – Strassgang), at the exit keep left to “Strassgang-Webling”, at the next junction (with traffic lights) keep left, cross the bridge over the highway with the tunnel exit on the right and the railway line to the next junction with traffic lights, here you keep right to the “Weblinger Straße”. At the next junction (with a car dealer on the right) you turn right into the “L333”. Go for about 150m, then turn left into a small street called “Salfeldstraße”. Go until the end of the street – you can already see the castle a little bit to the right. Now turn right, and then left, and the continuing Salfeldstraße will take you right to the castle hill.
- Via A2 from the East or West: Go until the highway junction “Knoten Graz West”, take the exit to Graz. Go until short before the Plabutschunnel (the tunnel that passes the city in the West), then keep left to take the exit “Graz” which takes you to the roundabout, keep on the left lane to Graz-Center. Take the second exit on the right to “Graz Mitte – Strassgang), at the exit keep left to “Strassgang-Webling”, at the next junction (with traffic lights) keep left, cross the bridge over the highway with the tunnel exit on the right and the railway line to the next junction with traffic lights, here you keep right to the “Weblinger Straße”. At the next junction (with a car dealer on the right) you turn right into the “L333”. Go for about 150m, then turn left into a small street called “Salfeldstraße”. Go until the end of the street – you can already see the castle a little bit to the right. Now turn right, and then left, and the continuing Salfeldstraße will take you right to the castle hill.

For any questions regarding in Graz, please let us know:

- dieter.bacher@bik.ac.at
- sylwia.szyc@ipn.gov.pl