

Democracy
Institute

osztrák kulturális fórum^{bud}

LUDWIG
BOLTZMANN
INSTITUT
Kriegsfolgenforschung

Historical Perspectives on Infant Care and Child Education Emmi Pikler, Infant Homes, and the Politics of Child Welfare in 20th Century Hungary

Venue: CEU Democracy Institute (1051 Budapest, Nádor str. 15.)

Date: October 10-11, 2025

Language: The event will be held in Hungarian and English.

The Conference is organized in collaboration with CEU Democracy Institute, Österreichisches Kulturforum Budapest, Ludwig Boltzmann Institut für Kriegsfolgenforschung, Graz – Wien – Raabs, and Institut für Geschichte, Universität Graz.

During the conference, the exhibition “Calliope. Join the Dots” will be on display in the CEU foyer. The exhibition is sponsored by the Österreichisches Kulturforum Budapest.

DAY 1: October 10, Friday

9:45-10:00 Registration

10:00 Opening

Andrea PETŐ (CEU Vienna, CEU Democracy Institute)

Fabian ORTNER (Österreichisches Kulturforum Budapest)

10:15-10:45 Keynote

Barbara STELZL-MARX (Ludwig Boltzmann Institut für Kriegsfolgenforschung, Universität Graz): Growing Up Under Extremes: Childhood Experiences and their Transgenerational Legacy [ENG / On-site]

10:45-12:00 I. Ideology, Law and the State

Chair: Borbála JUHÁSZ (Hungarian Women’s Lobby)

Veronika LEHOTAY (University of Miskolc, Faculty of Law): Áldozat és/vagy elkövető? Jogi válaszok a gyermekek és a fiatalok problémáira a 20. század első felében (Victim and/or perpetrator? Legal responses to the problems of children and juveniles in the first half of the 20th century) [HUN / On-site]

Béla PUKÁNSZKY (University of Szeged): Gyermekkép-változatok, gyermekideológiák a 19–20. század pedagógiai szakirodalmában (Changes in the image and ideology of the child in the pedagogical literature of the 19th–20th centuries) [HUN / On-site]

Democracy
Institute

LUDWIG
BOLTZMANN
INSTITUT
Kriegsfolgenforschung

Krisztina PLENTER (University of Debrecen, Doctoral School of History and Ethnology): A Pikler-módszer a mai körülmények és kihívások tükrében (The Pikler approach in the light of contemporary circumstances and challenges) [HUN / On-site]

Coffee Break

12:15-13:30 II. The Legacy of Emmi Pikler Across Shifting Political Contexts

Chair: Andrea PETŐ (CEU Vienna, CEU Democracy Institute)

Judit KÓNYA (Central Archives for the History of the Jewish People, Jerusalem): The war years of Emmi Pikler. The significance of the forgotten Mother and Nurse Training Course (1940–1944) in Pikler's oeuvre [ENG / Online]

Annina GAGYIOVA (Department of Modern Transnational and Intellectual History, Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic): Promoting women's emancipation in socialist Hungary. Pediatrician Emmi Pikler, early childhood care and transnational knowledge circulation, 1950s–1960s [ENG / On-site]

Mária HERCZOG (Family, Child and Youth Association): Ideologies, policies and practices of infant homes in Hungary after WWII. The role and impact of Emmi Pikler and her followers [ENG / Online]

Lunch Break

14:15-15:30 III. Children's Homes, Children's Rights

Chair: Mária HERCZOG (Family, Child and Youth Association)

Erika KATONÁNÉ PEHR (University of Pécs, Faculty of Law): Gyermejkogi szemlélet megjelenése a csecsemőotthoni és bölcsődei ellátásban, tekintettel annak történeti aspektusaira (The emergence of a children's rights approach in nursery and crèche care, with regard to its historical aspects) [HUN / On-site]

Izabella GREXA (HAS Secretariat of the II. Section of Philosophy and Historical Sciences): Gyermekvédelmi intézményrendszer és egyéni tapasztalat az 1940–1950-es években (Child protection institutions and individual experience in the 1940s–1950s) [HUN / On-site]

László TRENCSÉNYI (Eötvös Loránd University Faculty of Education and Psychology): Hol is vagyunk "benn"? A "bentlakás"-hoz fűződő pedagógiai remények és kockázatok. (Where do we "reside"? Pedagogical hopes and risks associated with "residential care") [HUN / On-site]

Coffee Break

Democracy
Institute

osztrák kulturális fórum^{bud}

LUDWIG
BOLTZMANN
INSTITUT
Kriegsfolgenforschung

15:45-17:00 IV. Pioneering Women in Alternative Education

Chair: Bence László BARI (CEU Democracy Institute)

Anna BORGOS (Institute of Cognitive Neuroscience and Psychology, Budapest):

“Psychoanalysis has thrown a heavy stone into the long-stagnant waters of child-rearing theory.” Issues of child analysis and education in the works of Hungarian women psychoanalysts [ENG / On-site]

Friederike KIND-KOVÁCS (Hannah-Arendt-Institute, Dresden): From the Vajkai Sisters to Emmi Pikler. Women’s Child Care Activism in the Wake of the two World Wars [ENG / On-site]

Judith SZAPOR (McGill University, Montreal): Motherhood and childrearing in the shadow of politics. The socio-political context and clientele of the Pikler method [ENG / Online]

Reception

DAY 2: October 11, Saturday

9:45-10:00 Registration

10:00-11:15 V. International Perspectives on Post-War Institutional Care

Chair: Judit SÁNDOR (CEU Vienna, CELAB Budapest)

Teresa WILLENBORG (Department of History, Ethics and Theory of Medicine, Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg): Healing a Nation’s Future: The Role of Socialist Pedagogy in Post-War Poland [ENG / Online]

Ieva BALČIŪNĖ (Lithuanian Institute of History, Department of the Twentieth-Century History): “No one can replace a mother, but it is possible to cover for her” Children’s homes in Soviet Lithuania [ENG / Online]

Masha BRATISHCHEVA (independent scholar): Free Movement, Infant Homes, and the Politics of Care: Montessori and Pikler in Comparative Perspective [ENG / Online]

Coffee Break

11:30-12:30 VI. Marginalization, Poverty and Contemporary Challenges

Chair: Fanni SVÉGEL (independent scholar)

Borbála JUHÁSZ (Hungarian Women’s Lobby): Az emberkereskedelem áldozatául esett lányok és az anyaság, intézményi válaszok (Trafficked girls and motherhood, institutional responses) [HUN / On-site]

Sára SZABÓ (ELTE Doctoral School of Sociology / ELTE Center for Social Sciences, Institute of Political Science): Koragyerekkori intézményekben dolgozó szakemberek „jó anya” képének és lokális pozíciójának összefüggései (Relationships between the image of “good mother” and the local position of early childhood professionals) [HUN / On-site]